

Sandra A. Black Student Scholarship Sponsored by the Hamilton County Council of PTAs

Sandra Black dedicated over 35 years of her life to education, beginning her career as a teacher in 1964 at the Orange Grove Center. She later taught business English at Hixson High School. She was a graduate of Red Bank High School and was a native of Chattanooga.

Mrs. Black was a Curriculum and Instruction specialist from 1975-77. She held positions as principal at Falling Water, Bachman, Alpine Crest, and McConnell elementary schools before becoming Director of Elementary Education in 1988. She served from 1995-99 as Associate Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction.

One of Mrs. Black's colleagues, Charlene Becker, wrote the following: "Sandra Black was an educator extraordinaire. She loved children of all ages. She worked untiringly to ensure the best academic programming possible for them. She inspired many others to do the same."

Sandra A. Black was a true advocate for children and youth.

Join PTA! PTA advocates for education, for health and safety, for the arts, and for leadership training at all levels from the local school, to the state, and to the national levels!
